On May 7, 2020, in Pharr, Texas, a Pharr Police Department Patrol Officer conducted a probable cause traffic stop on a vehicle driven by Isaac Alexander MEDRANO. MEDRANO was the driver and sole occupant of the vehicle.

During the traffic encounter, MEDRANO admitted to being in possession of a pipe used to smoke synthetic marijuana then provided the pipe to the Officer. The Officer observed in plain view a plastic bag with a crystalline substance placed on the backseat of the vehicle. The Officer conducted a probable cause search of the vehicle and seized the crystalline substance. The crystalline substance field tested positive for the properties of methamphetamine, a schedule II controlled substance, which weighed approximately 271 grams. The Officer additionally seized multiple individual plastic baggies and a digital scale from within the vehicle.
